SUMMARY

I am a highly skilled licensed social worker, therapist, advocate, and educator with excellent communication, presentation, and relationship building skills in private and public settings. Highly proficient in managing multiple tasks in a pressured environment while meeting critical deadlines, I am a passionate advocate for at risk populations and healthy relationships. Educated and trained in social work and human sexuality, I am a compassionate therapist and educator. My professional and volunteer efforts have been cited at the local and state level while I have presented on sexuality topics at local, national, and international conferences.
